Agenda:

Re-cap from Joel Bergen

A.) Remote Learning

- Starting January 18 until Spring Break.
- 13 remote learners from Grades K-6.
- Disconnected from the Kleefeld School.
- Teachers hired to teach virtual classrooms made up of students from across the Division.
- Possibility of students repeating or missing out on units completely.

B.) Orange Zone

- Create the best plan for our students and our school!
- Following Hanover School Division guidelines.
- Classroom protocols- if the teacher is circulating the classroom, masks on. Times in the day to have a break from wearing masks. Balance!
- Grades 1 and 2's split overflow classroom with another teacher. Taking turns rotating through this classroom with a friend. Students re-join their class when they have music, gym and recess!
- Co-horts- revised! Grades 1 & 2, Grades 3 & 4, Grades 5 & 6 and Grades 7 & 8.
- Grades 7 & 8's come every other day to accommodate classroom sizes and spacing. 3 hours of homework sent home for the day at home.

C.) Gym Class- Received a document from the Division regarding PE requirements, working with Mr. Shields on making Gym class Mask Free.

- Mixture of inside and outside Gym class!
- Making use of the Park Toboggan slide.
- Mr. Bergen and Mr. Wallace taped off the gym into 3m grids so kids can partake in gym class without having to wear masks. Trying to stay away from the high-risk activities at this time.
 - o Low risk activities (no mask, space 2m apart, independent fitness activities ex. Go Noodle)

- Medium risk activities (no mask, space 2m apart, independent fitness activities, more movement, might use some equipment, cleaned after each use)
 - High risk activities (team sports, masks in grades 4-6)
- No Spring Concert this year.
 - Grade 2 Swimming Program cancelled for this year.
 - Reading Program- Some supports available to help those students in need. Mrs. Christine Friesen for grades K-4 and Mr. Link Wallace for grades 5-8.

Comments

- Candy Cane Lane- Great success! So much fun for all! Thank-you Kleefeld School!
- Snow Hill at the School getting lots of use. Kids are loving it!
- Birthday goodies brought in are to be from a bakery/store that are pre-packaged and individually packaged at the bakery/store.
